

Transcendence Death or Ascension - A New Beginning - Out Of Body Experience.

Maccello: God bless you my children.

All: God bless you Maccello.

Maccello: Is it necessary for me to say what a joy it is once more to be among you and to have the privilege of sharing your presence and working together in the name of the Father. I want you to consider those things you have said in your prayer Brother John and I would want your words to the Father to penetrate into the hearts of each and every one of you gathered here and to remember and to allow it to become a part of your being.

Maccello: Let us now progress and learn again of the many things, which you wish to relate to your fellow men and mankind. So Brother John, what would you ask of Maccello?

Brother John: Well last week we talked on marriage, this week could we talk on death?

Maccello: We shall talk on ascension. Is this make you happy Brother John?

Brother John: Yes.

Maccello: Because you see, where Maccello stands there is no death, there is just an ascending into the Father's kingdom and tell Maccello, what is it you wish to know of this state of being?

Brother John: I understand it quite well Maccello. I give it that title because that's the title the world knows it by. We know other.

Maccello: I know this in your heart Brother John. So, let us imagine we were talking to the world at large and did I not say to you when last we spoke and I asked you to be reminded of these words of Christ when he spoke to his disciples on this subject? He said to them; I go to prepare a place for you, by this he was saying that he is only going to ascend from one awareness into another. But let us go back to the beginning, from this point, this moment which so many living souls on this Earth Plane fear so much, the point of passing, the point upon which a spirit within is preparing itself to ascend and there is much wailing and sighing and sobbing, there is much torment in their hearts and whilst they are doing this, the loved one lays preparing themselves for this great coming. They know that there are those of us around them waiting to take them gently when they themselves make the decision to leave this earthly shell and ascend into the realms of rest and healing and it is through the love of those and the understanding of those who are left behind that this is made all the more simple for the one about to leave. Where there is a gentle acceptance that this must be so, in spite of the grief and pain, they would not want their loved ones to struggle into the next realms, they would want them to pass peacefully.

And so it is, the point of ascension Brother John is when the spirit within the earthly shell comes to a point of understanding that there is no further purpose here upon this Earth Plane and that they must rise up and evolve. And when it comes a time when these earthly remains are laid to rest, is it the spirit you are blessing or are you blessing the earthly remains for permitting a spirit to enter into this realm and housing it, providing it with a personality this part of it which others came to love and understand, or are you praising the Father for the privilege of having this spirit here on Earth. Are you blessing the spirit for that which it performed on Earth and the lessons, which it provided for you? I give you a classic example Brother John and it is so fitting you ask this question on this day of all days.

Brother John, it is exactly one year to the day that you blessed and commended the spirit of Patricia Ann and allowed it to ascend into the Father's kingdoms. You sent her peacefully on her way and you will be pleased to know, because of your prayers and because of the love of those who are gathered round, she ascended into the planes of rest and there she received her healing, she received the love of God. Because of your prayers she has awakened and now she cares for children of the Earth, not of the spirit but of the Earth.

Brother John: Bless her.

Maccello: She will work with those who receive the children of the Earth into these realms, she will bless them, she will work with those who are about to enter onto this Earth Plane, she will bless them and this is her task while she waits for the coming of instrument. So you see, this state of death or ascension as we wish to call it, is a Holy estate and your task Brother John, is to enlighten and to enrichen the minds of those who are left behind in order that they can come to an understanding within themselves that but for the presence of this one among them in their lifetime they would not have evolved here on this Earth Plane and but for this moment of transcendence or ascension, they would have continued on being who they were and what they were as before, but I believe as I have explained before, when one leaves this Earth Plane those who are left behind experience within them a change of being, their understanding is altered, a new vision is born within, a new beginning, a new way of life, a new hope, a new purpose, a new seeking within their hearts. So you see Brother John, the state of transcendence and ascension is as I have said, a Holy estate and it is not only the spirit of a departed one who ascends but it is the spirit of those who are left behind which also ascends into a new state of awareness and understanding. You understand this Brother John?

Brother John: Yes indeed, thank you.

Maccello: It is not an ending for those who are left behind anymore than it is an ending for those who have parted, but it is a beginning for them, the beginning of a new way of life. How many times have you said to them Brother John, you must begin now to rebuild your lives anew when you have comforted those who mourn. And this is so, they will begin to rebuild their life anew and those of their close associates will also begin to think anew and to view things in a different light. So, death has its purpose Brother John, it has a purpose of bringing forth a new beginning both in this world and the next. Is this answer for your question?

Brother John: Yes, beautifully put.

Maccello: What else will we talk of Brother John?

Brother John: Well you've made us all aware Maccello of the very serious indictment and omissions of the church throughout the centuries, she's never kept close to the message of Jesus, she's walked away and the ignorance and un-enlightenment of her flock rests with her.

Maccello: Si, this is so Brother John.

Brother John: Very, very sad. Anyone else wish to make a comment that we've spoken about tonight?

Sister Valerie: Yes Maccello said, I can't remember the exact words but I took it to understand that when your spirit decided to go, as if passing over was your choice, unless I totally misunderstood it.

Brother John: Maccello at the point of death does it not represent that moment that's arrived where, the things of Earth and the things of spirit balance and, as Maccello has said, the spirit thence knows....

Sister Valerie: Decides to leave the body?

Brother John: No, it then knows. There is no decision by the spirit, well maybe by the spirit. Would you like to come in and help us Maccello?

Maccello: Valerie, you heard Maccello correctly. I did say that there is a point upon which the spirit decides that this material shell has fulfilled its purpose and therefore responds to the call of the Father and enters into his love and light or, he enters into his realms according to his awareness and that which was upon this Earth Plane. I am careful to say this because you see, as you said in your prayer and your reading Brother John, in my Fathers house there are many mansions and if it were not so I would have told you. And I will tell you, there are many, many mansions and the mansions of which he speaks in this instance, of which Maccello speaks, I correct, are the levels of awareness, and you see those who have clung to the material things of life and given nothing in return, those who have caused strife and suffering and have enjoyed the experience, we wait for some time until they have evolved in these planes, in the lower planes of awareness, until they finally ascend into the higher realms and journey on in the love of God. You understand this what I am saying to you? There is a silence.

Brother John: No we said yes Maccello.

Maccello: So you see, in such a case as this there is often a reluctance to leave this Earth Plane, there is often a struggle within the heart of the one who is about to ascend, to leave behind all those things he had and has no chance to use or enjoy because it had gathered around itself more than its needs. Take unto yourself those things, which are sufficient until the day thereof. You remember this teaching Brother John?

Brother John: Yes I do.

Maccello: And this is why this teaching is given, take from this life and give to this life sufficient for your needs, for that which you have no need of is of no importance to you when you come to this moment of transcendence and all the effort and all that which has caused to attain these riches and possessions has been wasted and is of no avail. But be content with those things that you have, be content to live a comfortable un-greedy life and to give of yourself so that when this moment of transcendence comes to you the Father will say, well done O good and faithful servant, you have known the value of which you are and you have set your values justly in accordance with your needs. And therefore you have no fear of those things you have left behind and there is no inner struggle of the spirit, there is no resistance or resentment, there is no fear. And so the transcendence is a simple thing and it is at this point, when a spirit which knows those things it has need of, having fulfilled their purpose in his life, that he can contentedly say to the Father, Father I have decided those things I have need of the world are of no more importance to me, I shall arise and go unto my Father. And this is a point Brother John when the spirit makes that last decision that its earthly form and its earthly positions and possessions are of no further use nor value nor avail, that it is free of them and it can leave securely in the Father's love. But the greedy one and the cruel one and the vicious one will often find a great torment and struggle in their hearts and cannot make that decision and fear the decision and are trembling within and the spirit clings and is afraid to ascend and it is at this time when truly Brother John, the decision is made for it and it is taken gently from this Earth Plane. Is this make you happy now?

Brother John: Yes, I think.

Maccello: Is this explain this for you Valerie?

Sister Valerie: Yes thank you Maccello.

Brother John: All I wanted to do Maccello was to distinguish between the spirit within who has seen the Father and therefore has a degree of the Father's knowledge and say the difference between that dimension of ourselves and when we speak of we, the earthly mind and the earthly body.

Maccello: I understand what you are saying Brother John, I understand your thoughts, I hope you understand the explanation.

Brother John: Yes you have explained it beautifully Maccello.

Maccello: I don't want you to be in a confusion. What else will we talk of now?

Brother Christopher: Is it a... could you ask Maccello if it's possible for us, the spirit in the body to part and then return into the material body again? What some people refer to as an out of body experience of death.

Maccello: I heard you Brother Christopher, I am happy to talk on this. You see sometimes the passing of the spirit from one level of awareness into another, from the physical level of awareness to the spiritual level of awareness shall we say, is sometimes an exiting thing for a spirit. The possibility of doing this, of freeing itself and it is sometimes you see and you have on this Earth Plane an eager child waiting for his Mama to say, yes you can go and buy yourself those things you wish to buy. I believe you call it sweet or candy or chocolate, all these sort of things, which a child would like, he sees something he wants and will rush to get it. It is like those you are watching at this time with the athlete who is fleet of foot and fleet of mind who is waiting to begin his race and he is so eager to go and to win and to receive his award and he will sometimes, as you use the expression on this plane, jump the gun, what ever that is I don't know. And sometimes you see Brother Christopher, we have the eager spirit who in its heightened state at the moment when its mind is effected, its brain is effected by that which man has pumped into him to destroy pain, that he sometimes catches a tiny glimpse of something before him in this state of oblivion and he will move towards it and we see and recognize this and we know that the Father has not ordained this moment of transcendence for this one and it still has a purpose to fulfil. And as we see it drawing closer to that point where it will say, I will leave now and ascend unto my Father; it will experience all the love, all the bliss, all the peace, all the joy that we here feel in these realms and it will want to come even more because it is feeling so free, so enlightened and refreshed. And it is here at this point a posse of the White Brotherhood will weep within their hearts and say to them, but it is not time for you to come you must return and await your Father's call; and they will take him gently back, they lay him within his rightful place and allow him to regain his conscientiousness with a tiny memory, just a tiny memory of that which he has seen.

But you see Brother Christopher, even this experience has its purpose, it has a purpose of removing fear from a gentle heart so that when the time comes when the Father does indeed call this child into his realms, he will pass without fear and enjoy, knowing that which he is going to and having experienced the privilege of that moment, enough for him to know the love and the joy and the peace of the Fathers realms. Is this answer for your question Brother Christopher?

Brother Christopher: Um, thank you very much indeed.

Maccello: Is this make you happy now?

Brother Christopher: Yes thank you.

Maccello: I want to talk just for a little moment, I want to talk about the evolvement of man, I want to talk about mans journey across this Earth Plane, just for a moment, a little while. I want you to look upon yourselves as newborn children, tiny, seemingly helpless and yet filled with life in your life. I want you to consider your growth from childhood to man/womanhood, to parenthood, your whole age to your declining years to the moment when you return from whence you came. I want you to consider this, sit quietly now, think of this very moment, from the birth to ascension. Life is like an ever-flowing stream, it's a force, a power containing within it so many energies of different kinds and levels and depths. It is a force, a power, a light streaking across a level of awareness and because you are what you are, man and woman of a very basic state, you are conscious of this journey and being conscious of this journey you are conscious of different levels of progression, bearing in mind while this is going on in the human form, you are a spirit whose level of awareness and understanding has been slowed down in order that it may absorb those lessons which that journey will provide. According to your learning, according to your level of absorption of the lessons of life, your spirit will travel this course and if this course is impaired or impinged upon because the spirit has become so weak and has allowed the material mentality of this one of the body it is housed in to tell its stories and to bring it into temptation of all kinds, then the journey of the spirit across this journey of life will be slowed down that much more and will become burdened and will fall foul of the temptations of the base and gross awareness of the material forms and so will restrict its progression causing its progression to become a heavy laden.

But that spirit which will journey across this life taking in consideration the value of these things, which the experiences of life have to offer even though it makes the many mistakes and falls foul of temptations, remains aware of its spiritual purpose and of its spiritual truth and refuses to be departed from this and has therefore learnt many lessons which these mistakes have taught it, then its progression is assured across this journey from birth to transcendence. And because it is the spirit of light, which is aware and understands the pitfalls of life, has come to terms with them, it will enter cleanly into the house of God and will be received of him. But that which has stumbled along the way and has wilfully carried along its pathway so that it may enjoy the base and gross temptations of this Earth, then it must be taught to come to understand itself and to purify itself and to begin again, but only at the Fathers will. What I am telling you is, a spirit who, in spite of its mistakes in this life, has remained mindful of his love of God and of the need for its spiritual growth in order to progress across this journey of life, will be cleansed of its temptations, will be forgiven its sins, will be purified through its love of God and therefore permitted to enter into the kingdom of heaven and to progress on again from birth to transcendence in another awareness, wherever God deems fit to attain itself. But that which transgresses along its pathway shall, as the master Jesus has said, he shall in no way enter into the kingdom of heaven until all is fulfilled. And by this he meant, until all the cleansing of the spirit and purification of that which is of God, he shall not enter into the Fathers realms but shall strive on, on lower levels of awareness, until the Father deems it so and he shall be received into the light. You understand this what I have been saying to you? Again there is silence.

Brother John: Yes

Brother Christopher: I was asking John if I could ask you a question Maccello. I think I know the answer to the question I want to ask, however it would just be interesting to have it confirmed. Presumably, the different levels of awareness go on forever and ever same as ...

Maccello: Life, Brother Christopher, as I have said, is eternal and so you see the answer speaks for itself. You will evolve from one awareness to another, and this again is all I am permitted to say on this subject because we know and understand that when we talk of these things it only creates a certain amount of speculation I believe you call it, in the hearts and minds of children according to their belief, according to their level of intelligence and awareness and according to the pathway they have chosen to walk. And so you see, it is sufficient for Maccello to say you will pass from one level to another of awareness. You understand this?

Brother Christopher: Yes thank you very much.

Maccello: Are you also feeling liberated now Brother John?

Brother John: Yes thank you, and spiritually.

Maccello: I am so happy for you.

Brother John: I would have been ill had I stayed.

Sister Mary: I'm going to have to say Maccello earlier that the explanations would lead us to believe that when our spirits are ready to go we will know and we will go, but really its for when God calls us isn't it? And also, a spirit might feel it's ready to go but what if it's still housed in a very fit shell? How is it coordinated that the shell actually sort of fades so that everything's ready at the time of passing so the spirits know?

Maccello: Sister Marie, the Father is a great creator and he creates the spirit to coincide with the journey of the physical form and in reverse also. You understand this?

Sister Mary: Um.

Maccello: So you see, the Father in his love and wisdom knows when the time has come when this physical form has fulfilled its purpose and is beginning, not at his command to deteriorate, but through the wear and tear of its earthly life. But he will strengthen it and give it sustenance when he feels that it is beginning to fade before its time, before the spirit within is prepared to leave this journey. And so he will, through the power of healing and the many other forms of healing which man has been blessed with in order to fulfil this task, he has allowed mankind to play a part in seeing to it that the physical shell progress's through its life with sufficient period of time for the spirit to fulfil its journey and at this point when the spirit has fulfilled its journey there is nothing which mankind can do, either through prayer, or through what you call surgery, or through the love of healing because you see, the spirit has reached the end of its need to journey across this Earth Plane and it so will jettison or relieve itself of this earthly frame and the Father has ordained it so. Sometimes it will happen quite naturally when the body and the spirit coincide well with one another and so the body deteriorates and completes its deterioration at the same point of time as the spirit has chosen to follow into the Fathers kingdom having fulfilled its pathway. Do you understand this Marie?

Sister Mary: Um.

Maccello: Si. There are moments when, as I have said before, when this earthly shell of yours becomes molested and deteriorates because of its misuse and the cruelty and brutality of others, and the Father will allow then the miracle of healing through his love and the faith in his love of others who care for this earthly shell to allow it to progress and carry it forward until the spirit is prepared to leave it. You understand this? So you see, as you have been taught in your many teaching meetings, although you pray and offer healing prayers and lay your hands upon one who is about to pass, you will have it in your heart that it will live and become whole, not understanding that the Father in his love and wisdom has brought this spirit gently to the cessation of its journey through life on this plane. And this is where the confusion enters into the hearts of men and their faith begins to fail them and they say why must this be so, why has the Father not heard my prayer, why has all the love and healing love I have given failed? I have just told you so, because the spirit, the spirit, has fulfilled its journey and the material shell has fulfilled its task and is no more able to continue on this journey, that it is worn out, it is as you would say, broken down, it's of no further use to the spirit and the spirit will then make its decision; Now I am ready, now I will transcend and rise, go unto my Father. Its not because those who have given all their love and tender care to one who is passing and reaching the end of its journey have failed, they have not failed but they have performed a joyous task in that they have helped the spirit to transcend peacefully and go on its journey into another life. Is this make you happy Marie?

Sister Mary: Yes thank you.

Maccello: Is this answer for your question?

Sister Mary: Yes.

Maccello: Maccello feels there is a tiny little bit of doubt.

Sister Mary: There ... this acceptance at the point of death is just the spirit is actually recognizing at that point the Lords will.

Maccello: He's recognizing two things; it is recognizing that through the will of God, through the love of God and through the grace of God, it has at that point been allowed to fulfil its task and to recognize this to be so and it is at this point it also understands that this earthly shell, which housed it across its journey through life has also fulfilled its purpose and is of no further value to it and is no longer required. You understand this?

Sister Mary: Yes.

Maccello: And so it parts and goes its way and the remains are consecrated and blessed and put to rest as a token of gratitude for the task it has performed, the service that it has performed. It has journeyed a spirit across life and has protected that spirit so it is well that it receives the Father's blessing and it is laid to rest and returned to its source, to the Earth from where it came and is blessed so by those such as Brother John. But it is an unnecessary thing but a perfectly understandable thing that those remains are sometimes loved still, and in a sense it's worshipped and loved and blessed constantly, a point of remembrance, a point of gratitude, a point of continued love for the spirit which has departed and ascended across its journey through life, by those who have been left behind. You understand this Marie?

Sister Mary: Um.

Maccello: Are you now content and there is no more doubt in your mind?

Sister Mary: Oh no.

Maccello: So, it is time now that I truly must take my leave from you. I hope, I pray that I have brought to your understanding a level of contentment in your hearts and a level of acceptance that the ascendance from this life into the next of a spirit is not an awesome thing but a beautiful reunion with God of a journeyed spirit. Keep these things in your heart and continue on in your life resolving to make your life a peaceful life, a clean life, a pure mind, a pure heart, speak no evil of your brother man, understand him, was it not Kim Su San who taught you when you see a worthy man emulate him, when you see an un-worthy man search yourselves and understand him. Let those words of your mouth and the meditations of your hearts and the thoughts of your inner beings and the deeds of your work; be acceptable always in the sight of God. This must be your aim and any word you speak which is a violation or a desecration of the love of God and goes against the love of God by the way of a curse or a blaspheme, should be taken from your heart. Keep ye always perfect unto the end, that you may transcend in peace and enter into his kingdom a true and worthy servant to whom he will say, again I say to you, well done thou true and worthy servant, come unto me and be blessed. God bless you.

All: God bless you Maccello.

Brother Gustus Emmanuel

Gustus: God bless you my children.

All: God bless you Gustus.

Gustus: May the blessings of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit be upon you, may he make his light to shine upon you and within you. May he cleanse and purify your being, may he enrichen you with his love and with his peace. Let us pray my children.

O Father, who art the life within all things, enter into the hearts of these thy children O Lord, lighten their darkness we beseech thee that they may praise thy name with true and contrite hearts, that they may be cleansed to come before thee and permitted to stand in thy presence in pure and simple peace and through you O Father may their work begin and progress from age to age. We have O Lord, set forth the foundations of thy temple within their hearts and we of thy servants here in these realms are the builders and erectors of those temples within them by those things, which we teach. We therefore ask O Lord that we also may be purified and cleansed that we may enter into them and blemish them not, that we may perform unto thee thou oaths and extend from these realms of thine and touch their beings and fill their grace with a Holy acceptance of thy love and peace. Be within them O Father, be around them, above them and beneath and through thy love and grace O Lord, may they fulfil their earthly task. May the love of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit be joyous within your hearts, may they enrichen you and enlighten you and rest and remain within you, may they lighten your darkness and open forth your pathways through life that you may see the glory of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit come forth and manifest within your life from this day on, even for evermore. May the Lord make his light to shine upon you, may the Lord make his peace to dwell within you, and may the Lord be forever in your presence and in your peace. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit I bless you. Amen.

All: Amen.

Gustus: God bless you my children.

All: God bless you Gustus.
